Fascinating, really

WHETHER taking fashion seriously or with humour, dedicated fashionistas aim for that knockout ensemble at the Spring Racing Carnival, with the highlight inevitably being the headpiece.

Toorak milliner Paris Kyne says a fascinator can offer myriad style possibilities, especially if it's attached with a comb or a clip.

"A headpiece on a comb allows you to place it anywhere into the hair style you wish and, at most, a little teasing and hairspray before placement and a few bobby pins after will be all that is required to keep it secure," Kyne said.

According to milliner Peter Jago, hats complement older women better, so his advice is to leave the fascinators to the fillies.
